

House Resolution No.

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize the meritorious endeavors of exceptional young Missourians, a most delightful task which this legislative body embraces with great enthusiasm; and

Whereas, Jace Groll of Ash Grove, Missouri, has enjoyed the glory and distinction of being named an All-American Scholar by the United States Achievement Academy; and

Whereas, the United States Achievement Academy established the All-American Scholar Award Program to offer deserved recognition to superior students who excel in the academic disciplines and earn a 3.3 or higher grade point average; and

Whereas, the United States Achievement Academy selects winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors, and other qualified sponsors, and once awarded, the scholar may be recognized by the Academy for additional honors; and

Whereas, nominated by Debbie Nicholson, counselor, Jace Gross will appear in the All-American Scholar Yearbook, which is published nationally; and

Whereas, a member of Bible Baptist Church, Jace Groll is a sophomore at Ash Grove High School, where he has also enjoyed recognition by receiving academic letters in his freshman and sophomore years, serving as a referee for youth soccer, and being a member of the Honor Roll, the Varsity Baseball Team, the Beta Club, and the Art Club; and

Whereas, Jace Groll has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include his parents, Jack and Tana Groll of Ash Grove; and his grandparents, Wayne and Ruby Berk of Ash Grove, Jack and Carole Groll of Largo, Florida, and Lorraine May of Kirkwood:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Jace Groll upon being chosen an All-American Scholar and in wishing him only the best in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Jace Groll, as a measure of our esteem for him.
